

About Author Jayne Jaudon Ferrer

An award-winning copywriter and freelance journalist before she began writing books, Jayne Jaudon Ferrer turned a passion for poetry and a desire to stay home with her children into a successful career as an author. Her first book, A New Mother's Thoughts (Pocket Books, Loyola Press), has been published in three different editions and has sold nearly 50,000 copies—virtually unheard of for poetry. Her subsequent books, A Mother of Sons (Pocket Books, Loyola Press), and Dancing with My Daughter (Loyola Press), remain in print and in demand as inspirational gifts for mothers of all ages.

Jayne's ability to connect with her readers was rewarded in 2004 with an invitation from ClubMom.com to become a "MomExpert;" nearly a dozen articles by Jayne, all focused on various aspects of parenting and family life, are now featured on the ClubMom site. Jayne's annual "Scintillating Springtime Parade of Poems," which she produces online each April in honor of National Poetry Month, was featured in the April 2007 issue of The Writer magazine.

With her fourth book, She of the Rib: Women Unwrapped (CRM Books), now in print, Jayne has extended her gift for capturing the essence of what really matters into the realm of midlife. Increasingly in demand as a speaker and retreat leader, Jayne's expertise with words, her strong faith, and self-deprecating sense of humor provide a compelling platform for her viewpoints on the responsibilities and rewards of motherhood. Having been the primary caregiver during her own mother's ten-year bout with Alzheimer's, Jayne is also passionate on the subjects of eldercare and caregiver nurturing.

A native Floridian who fell in love with the Blue Ridge mountains early on, Jayne graduated from Mars Hill College and has made her home in Greenville, SC, for the past thirteen years. A member of the Southeastern Writers Association and the North Carolina Writers Network, she is a frequent guest at book festivals and schools throughout the country.
